

The global economy needs

25 million new project professionals

by 2030.

That means 2.3 million people annually
will need to enter project management employment just to keep up with demand.

CERTIPORT[®]
A PEARSON VUE BUSINESS

Project a new trajectory

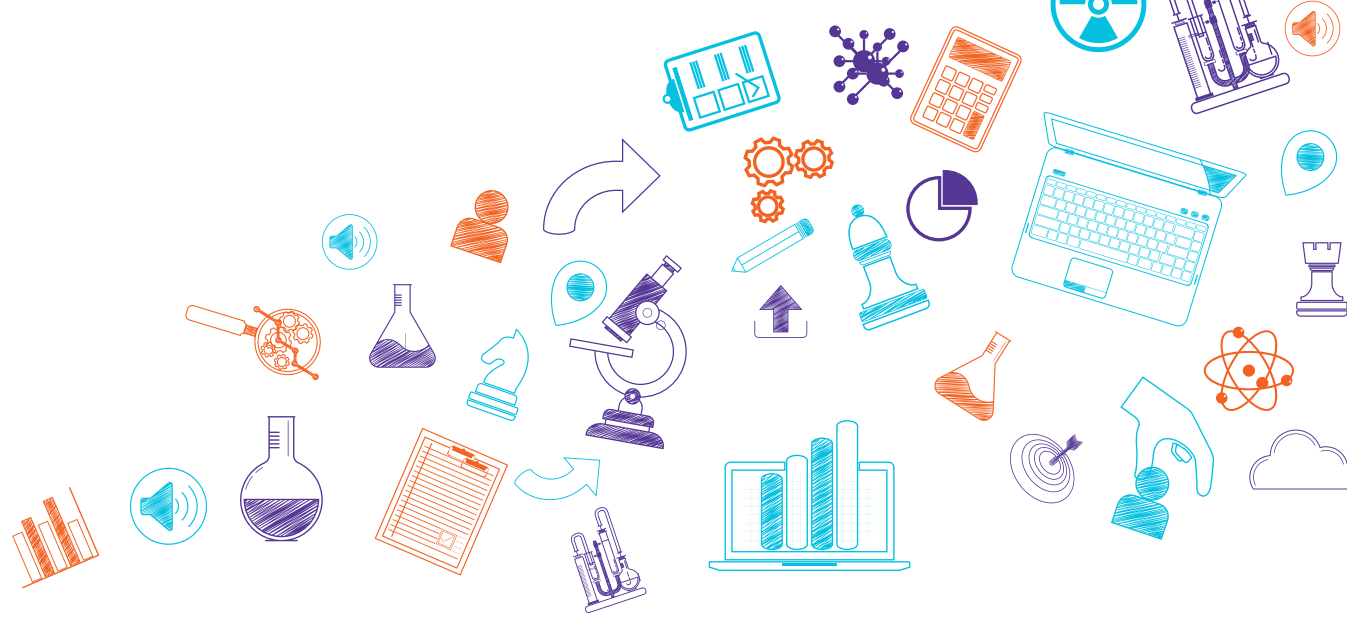

PMI Project Management Ready[®] is a one-semester certification program that can be incorporated into a wide variety of courses or taught by teachers pioneering project management-specific courses to equip students with foundational skills in project management.

With this certification, students will be prepared for entry-level jobs such as project coordinator, event planner, or project team member and be on the pathway to further certification from PMI. Integrating the PMI Project Management Ready learning resources, practice tests and certification exams into the classroom will help students gain a credential in project management and prove their skills, preparing them for the next step in education or a career.

ABOUT PMI

Project Management Institute (PMI) is the leading professional association for project management, and the authority for a growing global community of millions of project professionals and individuals who use project management skills.
